5 Student Status at Niigata University

The status of exchange students will be either Special Auditing Student or Special Research Student. It is recommended they consider carefully whether to apply for which category of student by understanding each characteristic described as follows;

I. Special Auditing Student

- This is for students who want to audit postgraduate courses.
- The Japanese Immigration Bureau's rules stipulate that international exchange students (Special Auditing Students) must take classes taught for more than 10 hours (600 minutes) per week. Since each class is 90 minutes long, students need to take at least 7 classes per week. Course credit depends on the subject you choose.
- It is possible for the exchange students to take Japanese language classes at the University.
 - ※For information: <https://www.niigata-u.ac.jp/campus/international/study-japan/program/>
- The students can receive advice from a supervisor about which classes to audit after they have arrived in Japan.
- After the study period at Niigata University, the students will receive an Academic Transcript and a Certificate of Enrollment at Niigata University.

II. Special Research Student

- This is for students who want to advance their own research interests at Niigata University.
- There shall be ample time to conduct research as the Special Research Students do not need to attend classes. Nonetheless the students can opt for attending classes if they wish to do so.
- The students can receive advice from a supervisor on their research topics after they have arrived in Japan.
- After the study period at Niigata University, the students will receive an Academic Transcript and a Certificate which proves that he/she has completed the Special Research Student program.

6 Tuition and Other Fees

I. Special Auditing Student

7 Admission Procedures after Acceptance to Niigata University

(1) On behalf of students who have been admitted, Niigata University will submit students' Application for Certificate of Eligibility for Entry into Japan to the Immigration Bureau of Japan.

(2) Upon receiving the Certificate of Eligibility from the Immigration Bureau, Niigata University will forward it to the relevant office at the students' home university or to the student.

(3) Students should then apply for a visa at the Japanese Embassy or Consulate in his/her country with the Certificate of Eligibility for Entry into Japan. With the Certificate of Eligibility, a visa will be issued swiftly and immigration inspection will also be quicker because the Immigration Bureau has already recognized the eligibility of the student for his/her entry into Japan.

※Please contact the Japanese Embassy or Consulate in his/her country for inquiries about a visa.

(4) Admitted students may apply to Niigata University for accommodation, either apartments and student housing administered directly by Niigata University. Students do not need a guarantor to live in these accommodations for international students prepared by Niigata University and also the rent is quite low compared with other apartments around campus.
